

EL SEGUNDO, California — Raytheon Company (NYSE: RTN) presented a supplier excellence award to Perillo Industries Inc. of Westlake Village, California, for exceptional performance in 2006 for the company's Space and Airborne Systems (SAS) business, which reported sales of $4.3 billion for the year. The company and six others selected for awards were measured by such standards as quality and delivery performance, customer satisfaction, and total business and financial health. They were also judged by opinions of their performance gleaned from Raytheon buyers who deal with them daily.
